Playdoh Partners

For this activity, you will be given a series of instructions in sets of two. The first instruction will match you up with a partner. The second instruction will be to use the Playdoh to make a particular shape.

VERY IMPORTANT: Do not destroy your playdoh shape until you are told to.

Task #1:
Matchmaker: Find someone who has a color of playdoh that matches yours. Stand back to back.

Task: Use the playdoh to make the shape of something important in your life.

Share: Now face your partner, introduce yourself and tell about the shape you made and why you made it.

Task #2:
Matchmaker: Find someone who is a different gender than the partner you have now. Stand back to back.

Task: Use the playdoh to make the shape of something that represents the way your life is going right now.

Share: Now face your partner, introduce yourself and tell about the shape you made and why you made it.

Task #3:
Matchmaker: Find someone that you haven't spoken to yet today. Stand back to back.

Task: Use the playdoh to make the shape of something that represents what you think is the biggest problem at your school.

Share: Now face your partner, introduce yourself and tell about the shape you made and why you made it.

Task 4:
Matchmaker: Find someone whose shape matches or relates to yours. Stand back to back.

Task: Use the playdoh to make the shape of something that represents a solution to the biggest problem in your school.

Share: Now face your partner, introduce yourself and tell about the shape you made and why you made it.
