The NFHS encourages all coaches to complete the FREE course A Guide to Heat Acclimatization and Heat Illness Prevention - sponsored by EAS Sports Nutrition®. Following proper acclimation and hydration guidelines greatly reduces the risk for Exertional Heat Stroke (EHS) - the leading cause of preventable death in high school athletics. [\[Download Course Flyer\]](#).

The NCAA Division I Board of Directors have amended initial-eligibility rules effective August 1, 2016. These changes have been reflected in the NCAA Eligibility Center Coaching Education course. Coaches, students, parents and counselors are encouraged to review these upcoming changes by completing the FREE course. College bound student-athletes, with at least sophomore status, are also encouraged to register with the NCAA Eligibility Center.

All four World Book: Learning Pro courses continue to be offered FREE on NFHSLearn! The limited time offer has been extended until October 31, 2013. Each course provides students strategies for improving academically. Complete one course or all four (Homework Helper, Reading and Learning Strategies, Research Skills and Testing Tips)!
